Not illustrated. 1907 Excerpt: . of fat, but when he called in the late afternoon, the milk contained but 2 . Another dealer used a dipper from day to day without ever washing it. No wonder the housewife complains about the milk she gets from the corner grocer. Being thoroughly familiar with the milk situation, the department makes the following recommendations in the interest of both the dealer and the patron. 1. Purchase milk in bottles only. 2. Demand milk of first quality and pay a price which will enable the producer to deliver a clean wholesome product. 3. Place the bottles on ice immediately after they are delivered. If bottles are not well chilled when received, pack in chipped ice. 4. Place the bottle in a sack before sending it out by the delivery or handing it to the customer. 5. Charge all bottles to the customer and cred-it only for the clean bottles returned. The housewife is aware of the dangers of a dirty milk supply and will co-operate with you if she knows you are particular. Some dealers carry condensed milk only. Condensed milk has legitimate uses but cannot take the place of fresh milk and sweet cream. SAUSAGE AND HAMBURGER STEAK. The adulteration of these materials is still being practiced too frequently. Hamburger steak which complies with the law shall consist of clean fresh meat without the addition of any-other material. Such material should be ground fresh each day and no stock carried over. It should...
