Into thine hand I commit my spirit: Thou hast redeemed me, O Lord God of truth. I have hated them that regard lying vanities: But I trust in the Lord. I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: ; For thou hast considered my trouble; Thou hast known my soul in adversities; And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: 1 5. commit and c Or, as P. B. V. and R. V. , I commend my spirit. To Gods care he entrusts as a precious deposit the life inbreathed by God Himself (Job x. 12; xvii. 1). The context makes it plain that it is for the preservation of his life that he thus entrusts himself to God; but the further application of the words to the departing spirit is obvious and natural, and it is sanctioned and...

Reviews

This publication may be really worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It really is written in simple terms and never difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
