We commend the book to members of young people s societies and to young women who enjoy a charming story. The Oriental setting of this beautiful gem is given in etching only by Miss Watkins in her desire to let Ji Yung portray her own life and character. She entered the Laura Haygood Memorial at thirteen, and then the polishing of the gem began. She remained a heathen several years, and her teacher wrote: To the daily study of the Bible Ji Yung brought a heart steeped in prejudice. But God laid this young girl on the hearts of her teachers, and the transformation of her life - a miracle of grace - was their reward. The schoolgirl s letters compass the great events of her life - her conversion, marriage, and graduation - and record the fact that after their marriage her husband, a nephew of one of the Grand Councilors of the realm, had entered Soochow University to continue his studies.
