Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 129 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . One Step at a Time and other stories is an eclectic collection of twenty-five fictional short stories. The stories are refreshingly individual; you will find heart-warming family stories that are uplifting, there are humorous tales that will at the very least make you smile, then there are the heart-wrenching and evocative stories; you will have to read and see for yourselves whether or not there will be a happy ending, there are romantic stories that will evoke loving memories for the lovelorn, there are even a couple of mysteries in the mix to titillate your tastebuds, so if that is more your style you will not be disappointed either. In fact, there is something for everyone s taste. The characters are distinctive and easily identifiable, you ll find yourself laughing one minute, shedding a tear the next minute, and definitely turning the pages to see what happens next. These stories will draw you inextricably into the lives and loves of the true to life characters of all ages and generations. The characters involved in these stories have very different lives and life situations, there are stories involving single people, as well as married couples and children, all of whom at one time or another, experience diverse human emotions of love, happiness, sadness, betrayal, mystery, friendship and humour. Their individual stories and the unfolding of unexpected events which develop along the way ensures your attention. Ultimately the experiences in the characters lives inevitably result in a life-changing conclusion. You will soon find yourself immersed in the romance of the characters lives within this book of contemporary fiction. It s a book that will definitely appeal...
