Jews of this world claim to be the Jews of the Bible. They are not. The Jews, of whom we are told in the mythology of the soul, represent the principle of good within the heart that prevailed over the external man. CHAPTER XV The wages of sin is death. -- Romans: vi. 23. John saw the saints of the heart (heaven) rise from their graves. These saints were Adam s good thoughts which had been suppressed by the evil ones. When, however, the heart had been purified the powers of evil no longer held dominion over them, and they began to assert themselves. And John saw a beautiful city paved with gold--the gold of Ophir (ashes), or the pure gold that is left after the dross has been burned from it by the flames of conscience. There were twelve gates belonging to the wall of...
